Customer Reviews

Hello, I run a CPA exam prep site where I answer questions from CPA application, CPA review course comparison, exam tactics to life after the CPA exam. I scored 88 on AUD back then, and I would like to share my thoughts on the pros and cons of the latest Bisk CPA review book on AUD. Hope you will find it helpful.

PROS

1. Endorsed By Big 4. Bisk is endorsed by two of the Big 4 for self-study guides (but for live classes all the Big 4 endorse Becker). Please note however that the endorsement isn't applied to the book itself but to the overall self-study package.
2. It's cheap! When compared to the full guided review course, the Bisk CPA review book is a very affordable option.

You should buy the Bisk book at vs their site because of the discount.

CONS

1. Mixed Reviews. Despite its claim as the "America's Best CPA Review Since 1971", Bisk has received mixed reviews based on my readers' feedback as well as those from other CPA exam forums. General complaints include the book being hard to read and difficult to understand. Despite the book being pretty big with 1,056 pages (vs 2012 Wiley AUD's 676 pages), some candidates find Bisk underprepares them to the extent that they have to buy an extra review course as replacement or supplement.
2. Minimal

Discussion On Tactics? For competitors such as Wiley and Gleim, they dedicate a few pages on how you can tackle the CPA exam. There is also a "getting started" section at Bisk but the content is relatively weak in my opinion.3. You Only Need One Book. Some candidates bought both Wiley and Bisk (and also Gleim) for their CPA exam preparations.
