Customer Reviews

I was sent this book for review and found it to be an excellent read. Yes, it was a love story, but with a difference and (apart from typos/errors) it was very well written. I liked the characters who were realistic and believable, despite the fantasy element, being that the very real thoughts and feelings involved were very well done...I especially liked seeing into the 'feelings' of angels. It was a well thought out book, and maybe for a younger audience, however, I think that the fantasy would appeal to anyone who are intrigued by the concept of Heaven and what may happen to souls - and the idea of where they may go and how. Themes of love, redemption, punishment, loyalty and, most importantly, death, are steeped in this story. When is it our time to die? And is there someone to help at that time? And, what if love..? How can I say anything more without giving spoilers? Enjoyable.

Amazing book. Would recommend to anyone looking for a love story!

Also it made me tear up more than once. My favorite character is Taylor because she is so brave about her cancer and she takes care of her mother.
